

Priscilla Tate
Research and Creative Prize on Women and Gender

Who is eligible: Any undergraduate TCU student.

Criterion: Students may submit one of the following:

1. A paper, not to exceed 3,000 words, which may be either a research or creative work.
2. A digital photograph or film clip of a creative project.
3. A multi-media or new media presentation.

In addition to the project itself, the student must submit an accompanying paragraph, not to exceed 200 words, that explains how the project focuses on one of the aims of women and gender studies:

1. To explore the social construction of gender;
2. To study the female experience;
3. To provide feminist and/or gender analyses of established disciplinary content or methodology; and/or
4. To develop theories and methodologies of feminist or gender analysis.

Award: $150 cash prize for first place. Top entries will be invited to make oral presentations at the WGST Showcase of Undergraduate Research, Service, and Creative Activity on Friday, April 28th.

Judging: The WGST Awards Committee will evaluate research and creative projects based on the quality of the work and its capacity to deepen our understanding of women and gender studies.

Process: To be considered for the award, please complete the information below and submit no later than 5pm on March 20 to:

wgst@tcu.edu

Please include the following in your submission:

1. The following cover sheet filled out in its entirety
2. Paper or Creative Project
3. The 200 word paragraph relating the project to women and gender studies