

Women and Gender Studies
Submission form for grad students petitioning for thesis or dissertation approval

Name of petitioning student

Faculty director of thesis/dissertation:

Faculty committee for thesis/dissertation:

Are you registered for thesis/dissertation hours this semester? (note: you are able to petition for approval of dissertation hours in a semester when you are registered for dissertation hours)

Projected date of completion of thesis:

Date of WGST submission:

1. Provide evidence that at least 50% of the content or your work in the thesis/dissertation is related to gender, sex or sexuality.

2. Explain how you achieve the following learning outcome through your thesis work. Provide specific examples of how your thesis/dissertation provides evidence of your attainment of the learning outcome.

Learning Outcomes
1. Students will demonstrate knowledge of the social, and/or historical construction of gender, sex or sexuality.

3. Explain how you met at least one of the following outcomes. Provide specific examples of how your thesis/dissertation demonstrates your attainment of the learning outcome(s).

Learning Outcomes
2. Students will analyze socially-constructed gender and sex roles among diverse communities and cultures
3. Students will encounter significant works of scholarship and/or methods for doing research in gender studies

4. Students will explore work by women and/or sexual minorities in the field of cultural production.

4. Attach an abstract and bibliography for the thesis.

Signature of faculty thesis director:

Date:

*By signing this form you attest that the student's description of the work is accurate and that you support the petition.